HOKUM SOMETIMES USEFUL
LET THE SPIRITS TALK
SCIENCE AND SUPERSTITION

Bish Stewart, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Chicago, wishes that Thanksgiving could be freed from "a hokum of patriotism."

The learned bishop does not admire "a certain kind of American that goes blowing around the world thanking God this this country has all the gold and democracy there is."

Nevertheless, there is value in "patriotic hokum" for "to convince others be yourself convinced." Several kinds of religions "going blundering around the world" thanking God that they possess all the true religion and all the genuine salvation there is, and those are the religions that make convert.

Britain contemplates changing a law that makes practice of spiritualism and its beliefs an offense.

Such a man as Sir Oliver Lodge, one of the greatest living scientists, could be jailed or "put in the stocks in the local market place, as a rogue and a vagabond" for asking a medium to give him spirit news.

Belief that ghosts or spirits return through trillions of miles of the ether or "continuum," as Jeans and other Einstein disciples prefer to call it, coming all that distance only to say "mamma is happy," may seem silly to some. But men should be allowed to believe, in a religious way, what they please. It is good intellectual practice. The savage needs his idol with green eyes and a pink nose. A higher religious concept calls for four unpleasant horsemen, and the house of fire. If spiritualists want ghosts that play on tambourines, lift tables, disgorge ectoplasm and say "mamma is happy," there should be no interference.

On the 300th anniversary of Johann Kepler's death, Einstein tells the Prussian Academy of Science what wonders Kepler performed, overcoming poverty, worry and making clear to human beings the laws of geometry and time.

Much progress in human intelligence has been made since Kepler's day. To hold the emperor's favor, Kepler had to tell the imperial fortune and pretend to pretend to predict the future by astrology, which he knew to be nonsense.

And even the great Tycho Brahe, who mapped the heavens without a telescope and took Kepler for his assistant when Kepler was 29, had his superstitions. He kept with him an idiot, that crouched at his feet at the table, eating scraps thrown to him.

And when the idiot uttered meaningless sounds, Tycho Brahe caused all his other guests to be silent, believing that the idiot talk was inspired.

There is a good deal of scientific talk, so called, today that might well have been uttered by Tycho Brahe's idiot. Some of it "refers to time that began at a certain point in the past," and some of it drifts about space that curves on itself, and is therefore not infinite.

In Chicago two men, one with four children, one with two, both out of work a long time, tried to

SELECT PLAYS FOR INSTITUTE HERE JAN. 21-22

O. S. U. Recreation Specialist Plans Program For Farm Meet

Salem's Independent Farmer's institute is assured of two good home talent plays for its program when the institute meets in this city Jan. 21 and 22, it was announced today by the program committee.

Selected From Five
The selection of these plays was made by R. B. Tom, recreational specialist of Ohio State University, Columbus, from five presented by members of the granges, which sponsor the institute, rehearsed on Monday and Tuesday evenings at Perry and Goshen grange halls.

Mt. Nebo grange's dramatic group, which presents "Joint Owners in Spain" has been selected by Tom, as one of two groups in the state, to give plays at the Farmer's week observance at Columbus, Feb. 2 to 6. The cast is composed of Miss Margaret Cook, Mrs. J. C. Bean, Mrs. Russell W. Lodge, Mrs. John Shelton. This has also been selected for the institute program.

Play By Willow Grove
The other one selected for the institute is "The Window to the South" by Willow Grove grange members. Here is the cast: Roy Whinnery, Raymond Whinnery, Marjorie Whinnery, Martha Whinnery, Eldon Whinnery, Bryan Sanor, Frank Fuels and Mrs. Nora Frederick.

Tom suggested to the grangers that the three other plays, out of the five rehearsed for the institute program, be given in a series of exchange programs at the different granges, as a start toward a home talent league, which Tom is sponsoring over the state. The work of the players was highly commended by Tom.

TOLEDO FLIER FORCED TO LEAP FROM AIRPLANE

Gerald Nettleton, 20-Year-Old Aviator, Joins "Caterpillar Club"

(By International News Service)
SAN DIEGO, CAL., Nov. 28.—Gerald Nettleton, 20-year old Toledo, O., aviator, now probably the youngest member of the "Caterpillar club" today was laying plans for another try at the trans-continental record he narrowly missed when forced to leap from his plane in a parachute yesterday.

Will Buy New Plane
Nettleton indicated that he would purchase another airplane and repeat his attempt to shatter the present coast to coast junior flight record.

High over the Laguna mountains when only 40 miles separated him from his goal, Nettleton was forced to leap over the side of his plane in a parachute yesterday afternoon. Black clouds, a dense fog and ignition trouble which made his motor balk caused the young flyer to jump into Pine Valley. His plane crashed about one mile away, and Nettleton, unhurt in the descent, made his way to a ranch house.

Couldn't See
"I couldn't see 10 feet due to the 'cuppy' weather and black clouds," Nettleton said. "The instruments refused to work so I cut the switch, leveled the plane off and leaped. I did not see the ground until I was within 200 feet. The last I saw of the plane it was gliding off to the south."

Nettleton was nearly two hours ahead of the junior record when he abandoned his plane. The record, held by Stanley Boynton, is 24 hours and two minutes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Will H. Hays, czar of moviedom, and former postmaster general, was married yesterday to Mrs. Jessie Herron Stutesman, widow of a former American minister to Bolivia.

The marriage took place at Tuesday, Maryland, home of the bride's brother, Colonel Charles D. Herron. Mrs. Hays is the daughter of Mrs. William Parke Herron of Crawfordville, Indiana. Her father was a veteran of the Civil war.

Mrs. Hays' first husband was James P. Stutesman, also an Indianaan, who died in 1919. She has made her home with her mother in Crawfordville and with a brother, Major Frederick Herron, in New York.

The wedding, a quiet ceremony, was attended only by relatives of the two, including Mr. Hays' son, Will H. Jr., his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hays of Sullivan, Indiana, and their two sons. Rev. J. McGarvey, pastor of the Covenant-First Presbyterian church in Washington, performed the rites.

METER BATTLE VERDICT GIVEN TO WELLSVILLE

Common Pleas Court Decision Against Referendum Petition

LISBON, Nov. 28.—In an opinion handed down by Judge W. F. Lones in common pleas court late Wednesday afternoon in the case of the City of Wellsville against Fred Eckfeld as city auditor, the latter has been permanently enjoined from certifying to the county election board a referendum petition for the approval or rejection of an ordinance containing an emergency clause and referring to the installation of water meters in the City of Wellsville. The temporary injunction has been made perpetual by the court, with exception noted and appeal bond set at $500.

On Sept. 15, last, the Wellsville city council passed an ordinance providing for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the issuance of bonds for the purpose of water meters. It was proposed to issue $25,000 bonds to provide a fund of $25,000 for the purchase and installing of the meters and $1,250 to pay interest for one year. The notes were to be issued in anticipation of such bonds.

Exempt From Referendum
It was claimed by the plaintiff in this case that the ordinance is exempt from the referendum, and the court held that if this is so, the injunction must be granted as prayed for.

The defendant, however, set up that the ordinance is subject to referendum and that the question to be determined by the court is whether the ordinance is exempt or subject to the referendum.

It was also held by the city that the question is legislative and not judicial, and that the action of council in declaring it to be an emergency ordinance is final and not subject to review by the courts.

PASTOR URGES WORLD RETURN TO OLD FAITH

Rev. C. F. Bailey Speaker At Thanksgiving Union Service

RED CROSS GIVEN $38.29 OFFERING

Special Meetings Held In Several Churches On Thursday

America is in the balance, awaiting the decision of Almighty God, declared Rev. C. F. Bailey, pastor of the First Friends church, in his sermon at the annual union Thanksgiving service of Salem churches Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. Bailey pointed out that if the nation would swing back to the "faith of our forefathers and the word of God," he believes that God will withhold His judgments upon the people.

Reviews History
"I am glad that we have the word of God read in the schools of Salem," the speaker said.

Rev. Bailey reviewed history in connection with Thanksgiving and also of the period between the time of the first Thanksgiving of the Pilgrim fathers and the establishment of the annual observance of Thanksgiving day.

He suggested to his auditors that they change the "G" in the word "Thanksgiving" to "L" and make it "Thanks—living."

"May we consider as to whether we are living to please God, as individuals and as a nation? Are we holding up the Christ?" he asked.

"I wish America had been more faithful to take the word of God, in all its purity, to the heathen nations. May we not fail to put into action the law of sacrifice. Can we give less than our lives to Christ?"

Rev. Bailey brought out the thought that the churches of America should use the power they receive through the Holy Spirit to reflect the life of Christ in the world.

Welcomes Visitors
Rev. S. A. Mayer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, welcomed the visiting churches.

Other ministers who had part in the service were: Rev. A. C. Westphal, Rev. G. D. Keister, Rev. C. F. Evans and Rev. C. S. Conley. The choir sang an anthem. The offering, amounting to $38.29, was given to Salem chapter, American Red Cross. Next year's service, ministers announced today, will probably be held in the new English Lutheran church.

A large number of members and friends of the Baptist church attended fellowship service at 6:30 a. m. Thursday. The program was arranged by Miss Ada Whinnery, Mrs. R. B. Snyder and Miss Ada Lottman sang a duet. Fred Robinson sang a solo and Paul Snyder contributed trumpet selections.

Baptismal Service
The pastor, Rev. A. C. Westphal, in charge of the devotion, discussed the subject "Thanksgiving in the Time of Adversity." Baptismal services followed the program. Breakfast was served with Miss Marjorie Dressell in charge.

Rev. C. A. Roth, rector, was in charge of services at 11 a. m. Thursday in The Church of Our Savior. An early morning prayer service was held in the First Friends church Thursday with the pastor, Rev. C. F. Bailey, in charge.

Timepiece Is Mute; Striker Frozen

Effects of the icy wave which hit Salem suddenly in the last 36 hours, extended even to the city's "old faithful," the city hall clock.

The striker on the clock was frozen fast as the mercury reached a near-zero mark last night, the bell refusing to toll out a fire alarm when a blaze occurred at a residence this morning.

Fire Chief Vincent L. Malloy climbed the tower to the clock and made necessary adjustments.

INJURY TO SON FORCES SALTS TO SURRENDER

Fate In Form Of Accident Brings Retired Beer Baron To Court

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Fate, ever changing man's destinies, brought Robert "Big Joe" Salts, "public enemy" and retired "back of the yards" beer baron back to Chicago asking for and receiving mercy from Judge John H. Lyle, militant foe of gangsters.

Fate Steps In
Wednesday night, Salts, once described as "the cruellest gangster" in Chicago, was secure from the law at his sanctuary at Winter, Wis., where he could laugh at the efforts of Chicago police to bring him to the bar of justice as a vagrant, but fate stepped in to change his mind.

The telephone at Salts' hang-out rang Wednesday night and conversation that followed brought the information that his 14-year old son, Emil, had been taken to a Chicago hospital, critically injured. One car had bowled over him, and another, following in its wake, had run over him, crushing his skull. Law or no law, Salts came back to Chicago—and surrendered.

"I'll surrender to the law," he told James Burke, his attorney, "but I'd like a chance to make bond. I want to be with my boy, but I don't want to disgrace him by being arrested in the same room with him."

Burke sized up the situation quickly and telephoned the Judge. "I know," he said, "you habitually jail the people you class as 'public enemies.' I know you show them as little quarter as you can—but in a case like this—well, Judge, the boy may be dying this very minute." Judge Lyle too, was quick to act. "I'll meet you and Salts at the Englewood police station at once and arrange to free him on bond immediately so he can stay at the hospital without fear of being annoyed by the police."

It was no sooner said than done. Judge Lyle fixed the bond at $30,000 which was approved without delay, and set the case ahead for next Tuesday, allowing Salts to hurry to the hospital to be with the boy whose injury had softened the man who is regarded by many as the toughest judge on gangsters in Chicago.

Two Fatalities Recorded
Two more fatalities were recorded, bringing the total to seven in the current cold wave. An unidentified man was found frozen to death at Springfield and 12-year-old Robert Mueller was killed coasting in Cincinnati.

The blanket of snow covering the state and eight inches deep in downtown Cleveland took its toll of motorists who braved forth for the holiday. In Cleveland alone it was estimated 2,500 automobiles were stalled.

FIREMEN FIGHT 2 BLAZES HERE; TRAFFIC IS HIT

Fires At Whinnery And Reed Homes Result In Small Loss

LIMA IS COLDEST PLACE IN STATE

50-Year-Old Temperature Record Is Broken In Cleveland

Grim winter, sweeping over most of the United States, struck Salem Thanksgiving day, accompanied by a bitter wind and prevailing cold that sent mercury in downtown Salem thermometers tumbling to the zero mark early today.

Heavy snow appeared in several states but in Salem and vicinity the cold wave was limited to a driving wind and lowest temperatures of the winter. Temperatures in this city are reported to have wavered from zero to three degrees above during the night.

Two Fires Reported
Salem firemen were called out to the cold twice in the last 24 hours to extinguish fires in residences here. Both blazes, neither of which was serious, were direct results of the low temperatures. Fire Chief Vincent L. Malloy said this morning. Several minor automobile accidents also occurred in this city and on nearby roads as machines skidded on the slippery roads.

Attempts to thaw out frozen water pipes are said to have started a fire which caused damage to the residence of Lloyd Whinnery, 1108 East Ninth street, at 9:03 a. m. today. Firemen extinguished the blaze without difficulty. A defective chimney is declared by Malloy to have caused a fire at the home of Ralph Reed, East Second street and North Broadway, at 5:45 p. m. Thursday.

Automobiles Collide
An automobile driven by John French, Salem High student and football player, collided with a machine driven by Fred Cook, R. F. D. No. 3, Leetonia at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday. The machine came together at the Washington avenue-East Pershing street intersection when Cook was unable to stop his car at the corner because of the slippery condition of the street, police said.

AMERICAN INTERESTS ABROAD

In this day of international thinking and talking, one hears a great deal of this nation's vast interests abroad—interests which must be safeguarded, protected and given an important place in all considerations affecting them.

The department of commerce's figures on these interests, released Tuesday, explain just how vast they are.

The department estimates that the value of direct American investments abroad at the end of 1929 was approximately seven and one-half billion dollars. As distinguished from "port-folio" investments, "direct" investments comprise those commercial and industrial properties situated abroad invested primarily for business purposes. Port-folio investments are made primarily for income return with no thought of business control. Both classes of investments represent approximately $16,000,000,000 of American capital, a sum which represents close to 4 per cent of the national wealth.

The direct investments, by geographical distribution, are: Canada—$1,960,320,000; South America—$1,547,895,000; Europe—$1,352,753,000; Cuba and West India—$1,053,751,000; Mexico and Central America—$917,093,000; Asia, Africa and Australia—$645,923,000. Total—$7,477,735,000.

It is of great significance that approximately three-fourths of America's direct investments abroad are in countries of the new world. In order of the percentages of the total invested the countries are: Canada, Cuba, Mexico, Great Britain, Chile, Argentina, Venezuela and Germany. The investments range from 26 per cent of the whole in Canada to three per cent in Germany.

No less interesting is the distribution of the investments. The largest single item is public utilities, in which $1,625,000,000 is invested. Branch factories are next, followed by mines and smelters, and petroleum properties.

There could be, perhaps, no more convincing exposition of the way in which thought follows the pocket-book than these estimates from the department of commerce. Four per cent of the national wealth of the United States doing work in other countries—yet there are people who believe, and sincerely, that Americans should keep free from entangling alliances. The alliances are already in existence; precautions are necessary to keep them from becoming entangled.

A SUCCESS STORY

The story of the late Charles H. Markham's rise in the railroad industry is part of the stock in trade of every public speaker. It has the stuff of real human interest in it. It is a typical American success story.

From platform sweeper to railroad president, the tale goes. A traveling auditor of the Southern Pacific railroad noticed a young man sweeping the station platform at Deming, N. M. He was doing it according to a system, making every stroke count, and paying no attention to the private car from which the auditor was observing him. "There's a boy at Deming, sweeping platforms, who misses no dirt and wastes no strokes," the auditor told railroad officials. "Watch him."

The "watching" did not bring results immediately. Markham stayed on at Deming six years. Slowly, by many advancements and changes, he got to Fresno, Cal., as agent. Then, he worked out a new plan of car loading which saved money for the railroad. He was on his way to becoming an efficiency expert. Then as the momentum increased, he took big jumps. He became president of the Illinois Central railroad and doubled its assets. He took the mystery out of railroads—became one of the outstanding figures in railroading. He died at Altadena, Cal., the other day at the age of 69.

Greater than the positions he held and the accomplishments he performed is the success story by which he will be remembered. Young Americans inclined to be skeptical about opportunities for advancement in this busy time will profit by it. The fellow who misses no dirt, wastes no effort and makes it his business to know his business, whatever it may be, still can accept handicaps in the race for success. Efficiency continues to demand a premium.

The Stars Say

For Saturday, November 29

The sidereal operations in force on this day point to great advancement and progress, with auspicious and generally flourishing conditions in business as well as in the personal associations and the aims. The finances are well fortified by a very friendly and powerful Jupiter, although it would be well to be particularly cautious in signing all writings and documents. The social or affectional affiliations may occupy large place in the happy affairs of the day. Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year in which to push to high goals, as the planet of progress and prosperity reigns in friendly spirit, assuring his beneficence in business, domestic affairs and accentuating the affectional relations. But sign all papers with precaution and guard against misrepresentation. A child born on this day should be noble, generous, popular and ambitious and should attain good position in life and attain great personal happiness.

And upon leaving the theatre—the Selwyn, the poor theatres need free puff—my wife dropped behind to speak to friends. While awaiting her in the foyer a bedazzling lady asked me for a light. I snapped my lighter gallantly and was held by the flame to her cigarette when my wife joined me. It was not necessary, but I wonder now why I went in to elaborate explanations. Incidentally while awaiting a taxi I counted 14 ladies in evening dresses, puffing cigarettes, the brazen hussies!

What Others Say

The Arrogance Of Dr. McBride

Dr. F. Scott McBride, the "Duce" of the Anti-Saloon league, lately rose to assert that if the Hoover enforcement commission dares to recommend a modification of the Volstead act, or any other change in the prohibition laws, it will "exceed its functions."

Although Dr. McBride apparently holds a contrary impression, it is a fact nevertheless that neither the President nor the congress of the United States has yet advocated in his favor. He has not yet arrived at the dignity of being dictator over the land and sole custodian of its morals and ethics. For him to undertake to say how a federal commission may or may not report, is a great piece of arrogant impudence; and the performance is quite inexcusable, even though the doctor may feel that there is pressing need for his organization to provide an alibi that will seem to excuse it from accepting findings which he thinks are not going to be to his liking.

The supplementary statement by the doctor that regardless of what the Hoover commission may recommend, his organization will stand uncompromisingly against any modification of the dry regulations is another matter. The Anti-Saloon league will have the right to take any position regarding the commission report it may choose to make. But the announcement in advance that the organization will listen to neither presentation of fact nor to argument, if either, are repugnant to its preconceived notions, surely will not strengthen any impression now existing that the league is a reliable, unprejudiced, intellectually honest and safe guide. —Detroit Free Press.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Exercise Strengthens Heart
Civilization has brought with it many complications. Some of them seem almost more and more difficult by the impossible to bear. Living is made multiplying of things that tax the human mind and heart. What can be done about it?

Statistics show that heart disease is on the increase. It is now the chief cause of death.

There are many emergencies that make sudden demands on the heart. Great emotional strain has a distinct relationship to heart action. Without warning, a terrible strain is put upon the emotions and heart by news of sickness or death or disaster. Even everyday living has a good deal of a strain associated with it.

Dr. William J. Mayo, that eminent physician known from one end of the country to the other, recently spoke to the members of the American Medical Association. In his address he said that man has developed a brain at the expense of his body. Long eons ago man learned to control his emotions. Dr. Mayo appears to think this has thrown a tremendous strain on the heart, so that it may account for deterioration of the heart in civilized times.

He spoke, too, of the great strain a surgeon is under in his work. He must control his emotions in order to be successful in his work. There is no doubt but that there is much heart disease among doctors. And it is so in other walks of life.

The heart is a mass of muscles. It must beat seventy times or so, every minute. No matter how quiet you may be, the powerful heart muscles contract strongly every time there is a heartbeat. When you are hurried or excited, these contractions are quite violent.

For many persons, safety demands moderation and caution against those experiences which excite the heart. But for the most of us it is important to train the heart so that it is accustomed to hard but reasonable work.

When you realize that the heart is largely muscles, you know that it must be treated like other muscles if it is to be strong. There must be systematic exercise, during which the heart muscles are made to work somewhat harder than they usually do. This strengthens the heart.

It is the height of folly for people to go through life, too lazy, or too negligent, to get the amount of exercise needed daily for good health. Keep a reserve of strength, not only of the heart muscles, but of all the body muscles. This can be done by vigorous exercise, and exercise that is regular, not spasmodic.

When a person has a weak heart, that is a different matter. Such a person should be guided by the physician in all such matters as exercise, and the general care of the health. But for most of us regular and moderate exercise, freedom from worry and emotional strain, and right living in general, keep us fit for daily living.

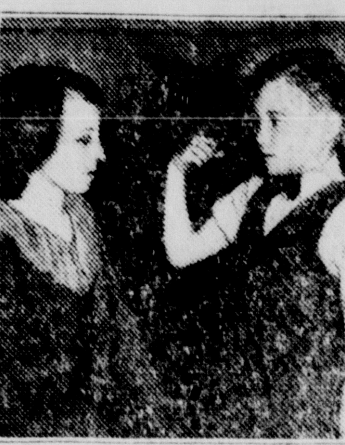

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.—The Rockefeller Restoration already has spent $7,000,000 in Williamsburg, colonial capital of Virginia, and the work is hardly begun, according to the report of Arthur Woods, president of the Williamsburg Holding Corporation. It has proposed $500,000 in the near future on restoration of historical old buildings here.

MIDDLETOWN, CONN.—A special set of 12 commemorative plates will be issued by Wedgewood in connection with Wesleyans' centennial celebration Oct. 10-12, 1931, according to an announcement by the college. The plates will reproduce on cream earthenware in the both old and new campus scenes.

Ohio Boy Amazes Mother

"Marion's stomach was often upset and he suffered a lot with headaches," says Mrs. F. Messelbine, 7031 Zoeller Ave., Cleveland. "He was feverish and his breath was bad. I found he was constipated."

"A friend told me about California Fig Syrup, so I got some for Marion. It surely surprised me to see how quickly it stopped his feverishness, cleared his breath and tongue, regulated his bowels, made him a strong and energetic boy again."

The quick, safe way to cleanse and regulate the bowels of bilious, head-achy, constipated children is with California Fig Syrup. Give it at the first sign of bad breath, coated tongue, listlessness or feverishness. Every child loves its rich, fruity flavor and it acts without griping or discomfort. Appetite is increased by its use; digestion is assisted; weak stomach and bowels are given tone and strength.

For fifty years, doctors have endorsed this pure vegetable product. The genuine is always marked by the word California. Look for that when buying or you may get an imitation.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Souffle for Desert
"As light as a souffle," is a graphic comparison to the skillful cook who can prepare one. For a perfect souffle is lightness and flavor—it seems to have no substance. And it is the ideal hot dessert to finish off a complete dinner, a mere "puff" of sweets, as its French origin indicates.

Whipped eggs are the foundation of any souffle, and once the basic rules are mastered, any number of varieties can be made in the same way. First, yolks and whites must be beaten separately, secondly, the oven must be of moderate temperature. (Like all egg mixtures, cooking must be moderate. If the oven is too hot, the mixture may scorch before it is cooked through, and if it is not sufficiently warm it will not rise.) And, most important—a souffle must be served immediately from oven door to table. It awaits for no man, and collapses a minute after it is removed from the oven, anyway. A souffle should be served at least the moment after it is finished, puffy, rounded, gold on brown.

MARKETS

PRICES DROP IN EARLY TRADING

Steel And Other Leading Industrials Down Fractions

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The stock market was lower in early trading today.

United States Steel was at 144 7/8 off 1-2 and then slipped back to 144 3/8. Other leading industrials were down fractions to a point. Utilities had losses ranging above a point; rails sold down on poor October earnings reports.

A few issues held steady or made small gains. These included the mail order shares, standard of New Jersey, Servel, Fox Film and Tobacco Products A, the last rising on declaration of an extra dividend of 15 cents a share.

NE WYORK, Nov. 28.—Clearing house statement: Exchanges $1,029,000,000; balances $157,000,000.

steal turkeys, and were unsuccessful, as they had been trying to get jobs. Policemen killed Fred Bernard, as he fled from a butcher shop, with the turkey that never reached his four children. Joseph Martin was killed by the owner of a butcher shop, and his two children will have a funeral and a turkey. Property, turkeys included, must be protected. How marvelous it would be, if we could attend to criminals in the million dollar class, as well as we attend to turkey thieves.

Germany lost the war but is not losing time in this peace. Using foreign capital, partly American, and 27,000 workmen, Germans will build 500,000 tons of new commercial ships. Modern war kills men, but no longer kills women, that create the men. It does not kill old men, and scientists are usually beyond the military age. Germany has her scientists, to create a new industrial Germany, her women, to create the new German generation, and is better off on the whole, than some of those that "won the war."

The government at Washington seems not very proud of its World Court proposition and propaganda. You read that arrangements will be made to defer any action on the protocol. It will be mentioned to the senate, with the request "don't do anything about it just now, let it go over. It might cause unpleasant discussion." The administration evidently knows, in a vague sort of way, that the people do not agree with international bankers, and do not want this country tied up in any international net work.

Prohibition, enforcement and northern federal judges say that home brewing of beer, and making wine from grape juice are legal. The federal judge at Tampa, Fla., says manufacturing or possessing any alcoholic beverage in a home is illegal. Government agencies, judges, enforcement officers and others should agree on what the law is, if possible. To have a different set of laws for different states would make confusion worse.

Three Hurt In Crash

TOLEDO, Nov. 28.—A car plunging over a bridge steel abutment onto another car, set both afire and endangered the lives of three men who were saved by passersby just before flames enveloped the machines. R. A. Weitzel, Evansville, Ind., suffered a broken leg, fractured jaw and ribs and bruises; Walter King, 37, escaped with minor cuts and A. J. Moody, 53, sustained severe head and spinal injuries.

TULARE, CAL.—Mrs. H. J. Lumley, wife of a rancher near here, has a Rhode Island Red, cockerel with two wishbones and no breast. The bird's heart is so close to the skin that its beats can be watched.

HUNTINGTON, TENN.—Monthly sing festivals are held in the court house here. People from miles around participate, those who cannot sing whistle and hum. It is a growing diversion.

Net Champ and Runner-Up

Close competition in tennis at Barnard College has resulted in Miss Edith Tomkins (right) being crowned champion and Miss Olga Kallos (left), of Norway, Conn., achieving distinction as runner-up.

Bits of News

CHICAGO—Four youthful burglars stole three pounds of grapes and ate them on the way to their river shack. Police followed the "grape skin trail" to the shack where they arrested one of the youths.

CHICAGO—Highway grade crossing fatalities decreased 14 per cent during the first six months of 1930, the National Safety Council announced. The total for the six months, as tabulated by the Interstate Commerce Commission, was 922 deaths. This was the lowest figure since 1925.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—The police department has changed its radio broadcasting apparatus because officials suspected that "ambulance chasing lawyers" were listening in and beating the radio patrol cars to accidents.

MAARKED TREE, ARK.—American Legion members here have adopted a deaf and dumb boy, sending him to a school for the deaf equipped with new clothes and spending money and an allowance.

MAYVILLE, WIS.—The spinning wheel business is on the decline, according to the records of Frank Fell who has been manufacturing them here for the last 25 years. Contrary to general belief, two-thirds of his output at present is for utility purposes.

WOMEN'S SCHOOL AT JENKINTOWN GETS $1,000,000

Beaver College Gets Fund
William Curran

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28. — A $1,000,000 fund left as a "foundation" for the education of females in or adjacent to Philadelphia by William Curran, who died 50 years ago, has been awarded to Beaver college in Jenkintown, near here.

Others Seek Fund
Two other institutions had filed applications for the award, Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., and the Philadelphia school for Christian workers.

The award to Beaver college was disclosed in a report to the orphan's court, made public today. The money represents the accumulation of principal and income on $50,000 which Dr. Curran left in trust when he died in 1880. The will stipulated that the fund should be used to establish a foundation for a college such as the testament described, when the annual income would amount to $35,000.

Conditions Stipulated
Under the terms of the foundation, Beaver college must give $5,000 to Lafayette college, and 6 per cent interest on this gift from Feb. 2, 1928, to the date of the award. Mr. Biddle recommended that the award be made conditional to Beaver college among it charter and by-laws to eliminate its present status as a stock corporation.

Victim in N. Y. Triple Killing

Mrs. Dorothy Foster, estranged wife of a New York policeman, was shot dead by Frank Masone, of Yonkers, N. Y., when the latter went on a rampage enraged by the thought that she had been untrue to him. Masone also killed Dorothy's foster sister, Marie O'Connor, and ended the orgy of blood by killing himself.

On Approval

The class was standing by their desks and the teacher was walking up and down inspecting the children's books.

On approaching one of the boys, she noticed a price ticket attached to his trousers.

"Tommy," she cried in a tone of amazement, "do you know you have a price ticket on your trousers?"

The boy, however, showed no surprise at being told this; instead he calmly replied:

"Yes, teacher; they might have to go back tomorrow."—London Answers.

METER BATTLE VERDICT GIVEN

Emergency Declared
The court in its opinion declares that an emergency concerning the water supply for the city exists cannot be successfully questioned.

When the storage basin was built it was believed to be of sufficient capacity to store a volume of water ample for periods when, by reason of deficient rainfall, the creeks, rivulets and springs would not furnish the required amount of water. By reason of these facts it is necessary to obtain the water supply from the Ohio river. We are informed by experts that the river water is impure and contaminated with disease germs. The city does not have a filtration plant or any method of purifying the water. In its present raw state it is liable to cause much sickness, although fortunately it has not caused any serious amount of sickness as yet. But any and all persons who use the water know it is unfit for use for domestic purposes. While the water from the gravity system is not perfect and should be filtered, yet in its raw state it is more pure and more desirable than the water from the river.

In sufficient Capacity
"The emergency exists in the insufficient capacity of the storage basin, with its present equipment or lack of equipment to store sufficient water to supply the city during a drought. This emergency is real, and is an emergency under the most approved definitions of that word. This situation was unexpected and unforeseen; it is a perplexing contingency; an unexpected and pressing necessity for action."

"However, in order that an ordinance may be exempt from the referendum it must be an ordinance necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and the reasons for such necessity must be set forth in one section of the ordinance. The reason for such necessity is stated in the ordinance to be to prevent a recurring shortage of drinking water in the city. Council is given power to pass emergency ordinances, and the court is not permitted by law to substitute its judgment for that of the council."

That merely leads to a false sense of security. Take Father Johns Medicine instead. Then you are not only helping to break your cold right up, but you are building up the system to throw off the poisons that are keeping you sick. This simple food medicine contains vitamins that promote health and strength and increase resistance to disease. Take it regularly and colds will be few and far between. Thousands have proved this for over seventy-five years. Just ask your druggist.

Body Of Nashville Man Is Found In Room At Hotel

(By Associated Press)
NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 28.—With a shoe lace drawn around his neck, the body of R. E. Donnell, 61, president of the closed Liberty Bank & Trust Co., an institution which he organized, was found in a hotel room here early today.
Repeated telephone calls to the room went unanswered and when the door was opened, M. D. Johnson, assistant cashier of the bank, found the body.
An envelope on which was written "To Ridley E. Donnell, Jr., from daddy," and containing his watch and chain, was found in his vest pocket. The lace from his left shoe had been removed and tied around his neck over a handkerchief.
Police said Mr. Donnell had committed suicide and that no inquest was necessary.
A statement of the bank, Donnell said, at the time of the closing Nov. 13, showed resources of approximately $1,000,000. He expressed the opinion that with economical administration of the institution's affairs the depositors would be paid in full.

MOVIES

"LAWFUL LARCENY"

At The State

An all-star cast appears in Radio Pictures' "Lawful Larceny" at the State theatre, including four-year-old Dickie Moore, who plays the part of Bebe Daniels' son.

Miss Daniels, the star, scores in an entirely new role, that of a wife who sets out to recover her husband from another woman. Her performance is intensely human and convincing.

She is supported by a cast of former stage favorites, including Olive Tell, Lowell Sherman, Purnell Pratt and Kenneth Thomson.

There is not a dull moment in the picture which tells an entertaining story of a cycle of victims. The husband is victimized by a siren, the siren is victimized by a clever, lovable but unscrupulous man, admirably portrayed by Lowell Sherman.

How he and the siren are finally out-manuevered by Miss Daniels, as the wife, makes a climax as unusual as it is worth seeing. A splendid thread of ironic humor runs throughout the performance, both in situations and in dialogue.

"SCOTLAND YARD"

At The Grand

Make-up, as an art in characterization, is brought to its highest perfection by Edmund Lowe in the dual role he portrays in "Scotland Yard," which is showing at the Grand Theatre.

As Sir John Lasher, in the picture Lowe portrays his usual polished gentleman of the world. But as "Dakin Barrolles," England's feared bank robber, he must assume the facial disguise of the underworld.

The intensely human story involves the struggle of an underworld character to resume his place in decent society. Through the mistake of a plastic surgeon who rebuilds his face after it had been mangled in battle, Barrolles, the criminal, is made to appear exactly like Sir John Lasher, English gentleman.

At first it seems that he is to be accepted by society in his new character without having to pay the penalty for his former crimes. But his own sense of honor prevents him from keeping up the pose when he finds that the wife of the man whom he is representing to be loves him and he in turn loves her.

Joan Bennett, as Kandra, the wife of Sir John Lasher, heads the distinguished cast seen in support. These include Barbara Leonard, Donald Crisp, Lumsden Hare, David Torrence.

"CZAR OF BROADWAY"

At the Royal

Czar of Broadway, a thrilling drama of the underworld opened at the Royal theatre last night.

"The Czar of Broadway" presents in a stark realistic manner the political problems of our city, living in the larger city, sincere love story adds to the color of the production.

The clever maneuvers of the underworld characters in their attempts to run the governments of our cities, is a revelation which will cause many to gasp.

The thrilling situations which confront a young newspaper man who attempts to get "the low-down" on the underworld add greatly to the entertainment. John Wray, recognized as one of the greatest crook characters of the New York stage, plays the leading role. Betty Compson plays the girl, while Johnny Haren is the ambitious young reporter. The supporting cast includes the names of King Beggot, Wilbur Mack, and George Byron.

Salem-Alliance Battle To Scoreless Tie In Turkey Day Tilt

THE DAY In Sports

MASSILLON WINS TITLE
COUNTY RIVALS CLASH
EAST LIVERPOOL LOSES

Massillon High, victor in three straight league contests, will be declared winner of the Northeastern Ohio Big Ten Interscholastic championship as a result of the scoreless tie game played between Salem and Alliance have won two league games and have one tie.

The award of the title to Massillon will not be greeted with a great amount of favor in this section of the state, in fact it will not be regarded as an event which will prove favorable to the newly formed district organization. It will probably increase interest in the circuit in the Massillon district but here and in Alliance it will only serve to point out the titular nature of the title.

Massillon deserves winning the title for, on a comparison of scores, it has a team that should rate high. Its season's record, from the standpoint of victories and defeats, does not compare with that of Salem or Alliance, but then the records show three wins and no defeats in Big Ten competition. Also, Massillon played stronger teams than Alliance and holds a victory over Warren by as decisive a margin as that registered by the Stonemen over the same team.

It is unfortunate that Old Man Weather put in such a disappointing appearance in yesterday's contest at Alliance. Salem has a team which cannot go on a wet or snowy gridiron. The elements were entirely against the Red and Black and in favor of Alliance heavy aggregation. Breaks were evenly divided as far as actual play in the contest were concerned, but the snow-covered gridiron was very much against Salem.

If Coach Stone so desires he can lay claim to another title, however, that being the Columbiana county grid crown. Wellsville's 6-0 victory over East Liverpool yesterday cleared the path for such a claim as the Stonemen hold a 13-7 record against Wellsville.

DOPE UPSET IN BUCKEYE GAMES

Cincy, Dayton, Reserve In Surprise Roles On Ohio Gridirons

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Nov. 28.—Ohio's 1930 football season was never more surprising than in the final games, which saw Western Reserve whip Case, Cincinnati defeat Miami and Dayton rise against Wittenberg.

The only true upset was Cincinnati's 6 to 0 victory over Miami, giving the Bearcats third place in the Buckeye conference, but the other two games, while expected to be extremely close, had a shady complexion, as compared with advance notices on them.

The three remaining games went true to form. Akron assured its ranking as the best team in the Northeast by defeating Mount Union, 20 to 0; the Haskell Indians fended off Xavier 33 to 7, and Wilberforce won from West Virginia Institute, 13 to 0.

Cold Weather Handicap To Players In Gruelling Game At Mount Union

Old Man Weather reigned supreme as master of ceremonies throughout the game of thermometers throughout Ohio down to a near-zero mark and marred what was destined as one of the outstanding scholastic grid classics in the state at Mount Union stadium, Alliance, Thanksgiving day afternoon. Battling on a snow-covered gridiron with a fierce wind blowing into their faces, Salem and Alliance grid teams, fighting for a share of the Northeastern Ohio football title, battled to a scoreless tie.

Good football was an impossibility in the gruelling struggle, fumbles appearing with prominence to mar the contest as the players, fingers numbed and arms stiffened by the cold, were almost helpless in the face of the elements. Less spectacular plays were seen by the shivering throng of more than 5,000 spectators than in any Salem-Alliance contest in years.

Three opportunities to score by Salem went for naught because of fumbles while Alliance, with the ball deep down into the Stonemen's territory, were held without a score twice by the stout Quaker line which was outweighed more than ten pounds to a man. Both teams tried several forward passes, Alliance completing only aerials of any account while Salem only once gained much on line plays.

Alliance probably held the edge in whatever football was played in the gruelling struggle but the scoreless tie was only proper in justice to both teams. The elements handicapped both aggregations but Salem suffered the greatest harm. Its star backfield man, Ed Beck, cynosure of all eyes because of his being rated as the greatest ball-carrier in Northeastern Ohio, got away for only one run, that of 20 yards, while the team was able to gain on straight football. Beck's one run would have resulted in a touchdown, the star getting away for a clear field but slipped and fell on the snow to allow tacklers to nab him from the rear.

Breaks Divided Evenly
Breaks were fairly evenly divided in the contest but neither team was able to take advantage of those that occurred. Play was in Alliance's territory most of the game but the Red and Black never advanced closer than the 19-yd. line. In first downs Alliance had a nine-to-three edge, getting most of them on forward passes.

Salem tried eight passes without completing one while Coach Wilcox's proteges completed five for a total gain of 63 yards. Alliance's only gains on ground plays came in the third quarter on a series of end-around plays with Gainer and Maxwell carrying the oval.

Alliance received to start the game and on the first play from scrimmage tried a double pass. Windland received the ball from Abaffy on the second throw to dash 55 yards over Salem's goal-line. The pass was illegal, and the ball was returned to where Windland received it. No penalty was handed out by the officials because of the violation. Mike Corso recovered an Alliance fumble and play continued back and forth without either team accomplishing anything. Alliance made two first downs to one by Salem in the quarter. A thrilling 20-yd. run by Beck gave the Stonemen their only first down.

Smith Grabs Pass
Starting the second period Windland gained seven yards on a buck but Smith intercepted a pass on his own 35. Beck gained two yards and Smith fumbled on the next play. Alliance recovering on Salem's 30, Windland failed to gain and Salem was given the ball on downs after three passes were incomplete. Beck punted from his own 30, the ball going over Trot's head and rolled to the Alliance three-yd. line. Gainer punted back but Beck again got the better of the exchange with a 52-yd. boot.

Abaffy failed to gain and Gainer punted on the next down. Bill Smith received the kick on his own 40 and ran 29 yards for one of the game's most thrilling dashes. Each team fumbled twice before the half ended with play in midfield.

Alliance Threatens Score
Alliance kicked to Salem in the third period and recovered when the receiver fumbled. End runs brought the ball down to the Red and Black nine-yd. stripe but there Salem's forwards braced, threw Windland and Abaffy for losses on two straight plays and took the ball on downs. Salem kicked out of danger and Alliance punted back. The ball bounded and struck Smith's leg, an Alliance end punning on it on the Salem 33. French threw Windland for a three-yd. loss and Abaffy lost two when Mackett broke through the line. Maxwell lost seven more on an attempted end run, Smith smearing him, as the quarter closed.

On a bad punt Salem got the ball in midfield but was unable to gain. Alliance attempted to boot back but the ball was good for less than 20 yards and it was Salem's ball on the opponents' 30. French hit the line for gains of two and three yards but two passes were incomplete. Alliance got the ball on downs and Maxwell got away for an 11-yd. run. Gainer's punt was blocked by Hackett who recovered for Salem. Beck kicked again and on the first play from scrimmage Alliance fumbled. Salem recovering.

Placekick Fails
Line plays failed to net much and Smith dropped back for a placekick. Beck holding the ball. The oval started directly for the goal posts but a strong wind took it and blew it wide.

Alliance punted out of danger. Carpenter returning the kick to midfield, Beck fumbled 15 yards back of the scrimmage line and Alliance recovered on the Stonemen's 35. With two minutes of play remaining the Aviators started another barrage of aerials, two succeeding, bringing them within three yards of a touchdown.

Windland was held for no gain and on another attempted plunge lost a foot. Two passes failed and Salem was given the ball on downs, bringing to a halt the only real scoring threat of the contest.

Prospects Bright For Winning Cage Teams At Damascus

DAMASCUS, Nov. 20.—With prospects for a winning team extremely bright, cage team of Goshen Township high school, will inaugurate their 1930-31 season when they invade Belmont for a double bill Wednesday evening.

Last season was a disastrous season for the Quakers, the boys winning but one clash out of a 14-game schedule. The girls won four games of their regular schedule, made a very creditable showing, by reaching the semi-finals in the Mahoning tournament.

Both squads have been working out daily since November 3. Coaches of both squads, report their teams in fine shape and are hopeful in getting off on the right foot with a double win over Belmont.

W. D. Larkin Coach
W. D. Larkin of Greenfield, is in charge of the boys for his third successive season. He is a Wilmington college man, and formerly coached at Hillsboro, Highland and Bellbrook.
Coach Larkin has four lettermen back this year, including Crawford and Coy, forwards, Yates, a guard, and Gailbraith, a forward. Of the new men, Stoffer, Weingert, R. Knoedler and Becker, are the best looking prospects.

The sextet is in charge of Adrienne Spahn of Lakewood. She is formerly of Western college and this is her third year at the helm of the lassies.

Prospects of a winning girls' team are bright, as Coach Spahn, has eight players back who earned letters last year. Out of this number, five of the girls were regulars, including Margaret De Wan, flashy forward. Miss De Wan was selected as an all-county forward last season.

Several Veterans Back
Other regulars include Alice Williams, and Helen Crist, guards, Esther Pettit, center, and Wanda Campbell, forward. Miss Williams was selected as a guard on the all-county second team. Lois Coy, Olga Miller and Doris Heward won letters last season. Doris Clemson and Lillian Williams, are the most likely looking prospects of the new players.

The boys will participate in 14 games, including seven games on

Stomach Troubles

That Are Dangerous (CUT THIS OUT)

Some forms of stomach trouble, if neglected, often lead to dangerous conditions—ulcers or cancers—then, a surgical operation is about the only hope.

For this reason, even the most simple stomach ailments should be given prompt and careful attention. So, don't neglect acid stomach, sourness, gas or bloating! And don't waste time with unknown or unreliable treatments. At the very first signs of distress, go to any good drug store and get some pure Bisurated Magnesia (powder or tablets). TO THE OPERA-TONIGHT

ONE OF THE BIG OUTSTANDING POINTS IN THE LIFE OF A GUMP AND COMPANY—

BIM IS TAKING ANDY AND MIN—

THERE IS TO BE A BIG DINNER AFTERWARDS—

IT HAS BEEN WEEKS SINCE UNCLE BIM HAS SEEN HEAVENYES—

HE IS WONDERING IF SHE WILL BE THERE TONIGHT—

BIM HAS BEEN SITTING IN HIS BOX

WITH GLASS HELD TO HIS EYES SCANNING THE FACES IN THE AUDIENCE— IT IS ALMOST TIME FOR THE CURTAIN TO RISE— NO HENRIETTA— SHE IS NOT THERE— SUDDENLY THERE IS A STIR— ALL NECKS ARE CRANED— ALL EYES CENTERED ON A BOX DIRECTLY OPPOSITE HIS—

WHAT IS ATTRACTING ALL OF THIS ATTENTION? WHO IS THE BEAUTIFUL WOMAN? IT IS SHE— HEAVENYES— AND WHO IS THAT HANDSOME YOUNG MAN BY HER SIDE?

THE PARTY WAS OVER FROM THEN ON FOR OUR BUMBO— HE EXCUSSED HIMSELF AND LEFT FOR HOME ALONE—

TOM

VAST AND DEEP—THE MOUNTAIN SHADOWS GREW—

POOR BIM—NO HOPES—

BRINGING UP FATHER

BREAKFAST IS READY, MUM!

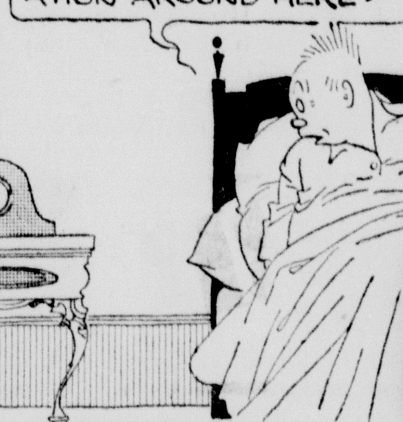

VERY WELL, JARVIS' I'LL GO AND CALL MR. JIGGS—

OH DEAR! I'M AFRAID TO DISTURB HIM— HE WAS SO CRANKY LAST NIGHT—I'LL LET HIM SLEEP THEN HE WON'T BE CROSS—

GEE WHIZ! TEN O'CLOCK! AN' I HAD AN IMPORTANT ENGAGEMENT AT NINE—I GOT A LOT OF CONSIDERATION AROUND HERE—

Kills Family and Self

Apparently distracted with the fear of poverty for his family and himself, R. W. Playford (above), 65-year-old attorney and banker, of Uniontown, Pa., shot and killed his three young daughters and himself and probably fatally wounded his wife, a niece of Admiral Yates Stripling of the U. S. Army.

SAN FRANCISCO—Being befriended by John Willett in trouble, Willett was "broke" in Sacramento and asked a stranger for money. He was given a dollar and arrested because the coin was counterfeit. The stranger later identified as William Hartley, was sent to prison for 18 months. Willett was granted probation.

HOKUM SOMETIMES USEFUL
LET THE SPIRITS TALK
SCIENCE AND SUPERSTITION

By Arthur Brisbane

Bish Stewart, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Chicago, wishes that Thanksgiving could be freed from "a hokum of patriotism."

The learned bishop does not admire "a certain king of American that goes blowing around the world thanking God this country has all the gold and democracy there is."

Nevertheless, there is value in "patriotic hokum" for "to convince others be yourself convinced." Several kinds of religions "going blowing around the world" thanking God that they possess all the true religion and all the genuine salvation there is, and those are the religions that make convert.

Britain contemplates changing a law that makes practice of spiritualism and its beliefs an offense.

Such a man as Sir Oliver Lodge, one of the greatest living scientists, could be jailed or "put in the stocks" in the local market place, as a rogue and a vagabond for asking a medium to give him spirit news.

Belief that ghosts or spirits return through trillions of miles of the ether or "continuum," as Jeans and other Einstein disciples prefer to call it, coming all that distance only to say "mamma is happy," may seem silly to some. But men should be allowed to believe, in a religious way, what they please. It is good intellectual practice. The savage needs his idol with green eyes and a pink nose. A higher religious concert calls for four unpleasant horsemen, and the house of fire. If spiritualists want ghosts that play on tambourines, lift tables, discharge ectoplasm and say "mamma is happy," there should be no interference.

On the 300th anniversary of Johann Kepler's death, Einstein tells the Prussian Academy of Science what wonders Kepler performed, overcoming poverty, worry and making clear to human beings the laws of geometry and time.

Much progress in human intelligence has been made since Kepler's day. To hold the emperor's favor, Kepler had to tell the imperial fortune and pretend to pretend to predict the future by astrology, which he knew to be nonsense.

And even the great Tycho Brahe, who mapped the heavens without a telescope and took Kepler for his assistant when Kepler was 29, had his superstitions. He kept with him an idiot, that croaked at his feet at the table, eating scraps thrown to him.

And when the idiot uttered meaningless sounds, Tycho Brahe caused all his other guests to be silent, believing that the idiot talk was inspired.

There is a good deal of scientific talk, so called, today that might well have been uttered by Tycho Brahe's idiot. Some of it "refers to time that began at a certain point in the past," and some of it "drivels about space that curves on itself, and is therefore not infinite."

In Chicago two men, one with four children, one with two, both cut of work a long time, tried to

SELECT PLAYS FOR INSTITUTE HERE JAN. 21-22

O. S. U. Recreation Specialist Plans Program For Farm Meet

Salem's Independent Farmer's institute is assured of two good home talent plays for its program when the institute meets in this city Jan. 21 and 22, it was announced today by the program committee.

The selection of these plays was made by R. B. Tom, recreational specialist of Ohio State University, Columbus, from five presented by members of the granges, which sponsor the institute, rehearsed on Monday and Tuesday evenings at Perry and Goshen grange halls.

Mt. Nebo grange's dramatic group, which presents "Joint Owners in Spain" has been selected by Tom, as one of two groups in the state, to give plays at the Farmer's week observance at Columbus, Feb. 2 to 6. The cast is composed of Miss Margaret Cook, Mrs. I. C. Bean, Mrs. Russell W. Lodge, Mrs. John Shelton. This has also been selected for the institute program.

Play By Willow Grove
The other one selected for the institute is "The Window to the South" by Willow Grove grange members. Here is the cast: Roy Whinnery, Raymond Whinnery, Marjorie Whinnery, Martha Whinnery, Eldon Whinnery, Bryan Sanor, Frank Fults and Mrs. Nora Frederick.

Tom suggested to the grangers that the three other plays, out of the five rehearsed for the institute program, be given in a series of exchange programs at the different granges, as a start toward a home talent lyceum, which Tom is sponsoring over the state. The work of the players was highly commended by Tom.

TOLEDO FLIER FORCED TO LEAP FROM AIRPLANE

Gerald Nettleton, 20-Year-Old Aviator, Joins "Caterpillar Club"

(By International News Service)
SAN DIEGO, CAL., Nov. 28.—Gerald Nettleton, 20-year old Toledo, O., aviator, now probably the youngest member of the "Caterpillar club," today was laying plans for another try at the trans-continental record he narrowly missed when forced to leap from his plane in a parachute yesterday.

Will Buy New Plane
Nettleton indicated that he would purchase another airplane and repeat his attempt to shatter the present coast to coast junior flight record.

High over the Laguna mountains when only 40 miles separated him from his goal, Nettleton was forced to leap over the side of his plane in a parachute yesterday afternoon. Black clouds, a dense fog and ignition trouble which made his motor balk caused the young flyer to jump into Pine Valley. His plane crashed about one mile away, and Nettleton, unhurt in the descent, made his way to a ranch house.

Couldn't See
"I couldn't see 10 feet due to the 'scummy' weather and black clouds," Nettleton said. "The instruments refused to work so I cut the switch, leveled the plane off and leaped. I did not see the ground until I was within 200 feet. The last I saw of the plane it was gliding off to the south."

Nettleton was nearly two hours ahead of the junior record when he abandoned his plane. The record, held by Stanley Boynton, is 24 hours and two minutes.

Will H. Hays Weds Widow Of Former Minister To Bolivia

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Will H. Hays, czar of moviedom, and former postmaster general, was married yesterday to Mrs. Jessie Herron Stutesman, widow of a former American minister to Bolivia.

The marriage took place at Theatrical, Maryland, home of the bride's brother, Colonel Charles D. Herron. Mrs. Hays is the daughter of Mrs. William Parke Herron of Crawfordsville, Indiana. Her father was a veteran of the Civil war.

Mrs. Hays' first husband was James P. Stutesman, also an Indianaan, who died in 1919. She has made her home with her mother in Crawfordsville and with a brother, Major Frederick Herron, in New York.

The wedding, a quiet ceremony, was attended only by relatives of the two, including Mr. Hays' son, Will H. Jr., his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hays of Sullivan, Indiana, and their two sons. Rev. A. J. McCartney, pastor of the Covenant-First Presbyterian church in Washington, performed the rites.

Mooseheart Ball Scores Success

Response to the Mooseheart charity fund ball, held Wednesday night at the Moose temple, was most enthusiastic, more than 2,000 tickets having been sold.

The hall was crowded with dancers, many of them from other towns including delegation from Cleveland. The Penn Zip orchestra played.

So great was the success of this affair that the Salem Moose decided to sponsor a Salem community charity dance Friday night, Dec. 12. The same orchestra will donate its services. The entire proceeds will be used to purchase food for the needy at Christmas time.

METER BATTLE VERDICT GIVEN TO WELLSVILLE

Common Pleas Court Decision Against Referendum Petition

LISBON, Nov. 28.—In an opinion handed down by Judge W. F. Lones in common pleas court late Wednesday afternoon in the case of the City of Wellsville against Fred Eckfeld as city auditor, the latter has been permanently enjoined from certifying to the county election board a referendum petition for the approval or rejection of an ordinance containing an emergency clause and referring to the installation of water meters in the City of Wellsville. The temporary injunction has been made perpetual by the court, with execution noted and appeal bond set at $60.

On Sept. 16, last, the Wellsville city council passed an ordinance providing for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the issuance of bonds for the purpose of the purchase and installation of water meters. It was proposed to issue $25,000 bonds to provide a fund of $23,750 for the purchase and installing of the meters and $1,250 to pay interest for one year. The notes were to be issued in anticipation of such bonds.

Exempt From Referendum
It was claimed by the plaintiff in this case that the ordinance is exempt from the referendum, and the court held that if this is so, the injunction must be granted as prayed for.

The defendants, however, set up that the ordinance is subject to referendum and that the question to be determined by the court is whether the ordinance is exempt or subject to the referendum.

It was also held by the city that the question is legislative and not judicial, and that the action of council in declaring it to be an emergency ordinance is final and not subject to review by the courts.

PASTOR URGES WORLD RETURN TO OLD FAITH

Rev. C. F. Bailey Speaker At Thanksgiving Union Service

RED CROSS GIVEN $38.29 OFFERING

Special Meetings Held In Several Churches On Thursday

America is in the balance, awaiting the decision of Almighty God, declared Rev. C. F. Bailey, pastor of the First Friends church, in his sermon at the annual union Thanksgiving service of Salem churches Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. Bailey pointed out that if the nation would swing back to the "faith of our forefathers and the word of God," he believes that God will withhold His judgments upon the people.

Reviews History
"I am glad that we have the word of God read in the schools of Salem," the speaker said.

Rev. Bailey reviewed history in connection with Thanksgiving and also of the period between the time of the first Thanksgiving of the Pilgrim fathers and the establishment of the annual observance of Thanksgiving day.

He suggested to his auditors that they change the "G" in the word Thanksgiving to "L" and make it Thanks-"living".

"May we consider as to whether we are living to please God, as individuals and as a nation? Are we holding up the Christ?" he asked.

"I wish America had been more faithful to take the word of God, in all its purity, to the heathen nations. May we not fail to put into action the law of sacrifice. Can we give less than our lives to Christ?"

Rev. Bailey brought out the thought that the churches of America should use the power they receive through the Holy Spirit to reflect the life of Christ in the world.

Welcomes Visitors
Rev. S. A. Mayer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, welcomed the visiting churches.

Other ministers who had part in the service were: Rev. A. C. Westphal, Rev. G. D. Keister, Rev. C. F. Evans and Rev. C. S. Conley. The choir sang an anthem. The offering, amounting to $38.29, was given to Salem chapter, American Red Cross. Next year's service, ministers announced today, will probably be held in the new English Lutheran church.

A large number of members and friends of the Baptist church attended fellowship service at 6:30 a. m. Thursday. The program was arranged by Miss Alta Whinnery. Mrs. R. B. Snyder and Miss Ada Lottman sang a duet. Fred Robinson sang a solo and Paul Snyder contributed trumpet selections.

Baptismal Service
The pastor, Rev. A. C. Westphal, in charge of the devotion, discussed the subject, "Thanksgiving in the Time of Adversity. Baptismal services followed the program. Breakfast was served with Miss Marjorie Dressel in charge.

Rev. C. A. Roth, rector, was in charge of services at 11 a. m. Thursday in The Church of Our Savior. An early morning prayer service was held in the First Friends church Thursday with the pastor, Rev. C. F. Bailey, in charge.

Few Pieces Of Clothing Are Saved; Loss Estimated At $4,000

EAST PALESTINE, Nov. 28.—Fire believed to have originated from a defective chimney flue, destroyed the home of Ralph Britain on the Clark Billingsley farm, west of Negley, Wednesday afternoon.

Timepiece Is Mute; Striker Frozen

Effects of the cold wave which hit Salem suddenly in the last 36 hours, extended even to the city's "old faithful," the city hall clock.

The striker on the clock was frozen fast as the mercury reached a near-zero mark last night, the bell refusing to toll out a fire alarm when a blaze occurred at a residence this morning.

Fire Chief Vincent L. Malloy climbed the tower to the clock and made necessary adjustments.

INJURY TO SON FORCES SALTS TO SURRENDER

Fate In Form Of Accident Brings Retired Beer Baron To Court

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Fate, ever changing men's destinies, brought Robert "Big Joe" Salts, "public enemy" and retired "back of the yards" beer baron back to Chicago asking for and receiving mercy from Judge John H. Lyle, militant foe of gangsters.

Fate Steps In
Wednesday night, Salts, once described as "the cruellest gangster" in Chicago, was secure from the law at his sanctuary at Winter, Wis., where he could laugh at the efforts of Chicago police to bring him to the bar of justice as a vagrant, but fate stepped in to change his mind.

The telephone at Salts' hang-out rang Wednesday night and conversation that followed brought the information that his 14-year old son, Emil, had been taken to a Chicago hospital, critically injured. One car had bowled over him, and another, following in its wake, had run over him, crushing his skull. Law or no law, Salts came back to Chicago—and surrendered.

"I'll surrender to the law," he told James Burke, his attorney, "but I'd like a chance to make bond. I want to be with my boy, but I don't want to disgrace him by being arrested in the same room with him."

Burke sized up the situation quickly and telephoned the Judge.

"I know," he said, "you habitually jail the people you class as 'public enemies'. I know you show them as little quarter as you can—but in a case like this—well, Judge, the boy may be dying this very minute."

Judge Lyle too, was quick to act.

"I'll meet you and Salts at the Englewood police station at once and arrange to free him on bond immediately, so he can stay at the hospital without fear of being annoyed by the police."

It was no sooner said than done. Judge Lyle fixed the bond at $30,000 which was approved without delay, and set the case ahead for next Tuesday, allowing Salts to hurry to the hospital to be with the boy whose injury had softened the man who is regarded by many as the "toughest" judge on gangsters in Chicago.

Two more fatalities were recorded, bringing the total to seven in the current cold wave. An unidentified man was found frozen to death at Springfield and 12-year-old Robert Mueller was killed coasting in Cincinnati.

The blanket of snow covering the state and eight inches deep in downtown Cleveland took its toll of motorists who braved forth for the holiday. In Cleveland alone it was estimated 2,500 automobiles were stalled.

Fires At Whinnery And Reed Homes Result In Small Loss

LIMA IS COLDEST PLACE IN STATE

50-Year-Old Temperature Record Is Broken In Cleveland

Grim winter, sweeping over most of the United States, struck Salem Thanksgiving day, accompanied by a bitter wind and prevailing cold that sent mercury in downtown Salem thermometers tumbling to the zero mark early today.

Heavy snow appeared in several states but in Salem and vicinity the cold wave was limited to a driving wind and lowest temperatures of the winter. Temperatures in this city are reported to have wavered from zero to three degrees above during the night.

Two Fires Reported
Salem firemen were called out into the cold twice in the last 24 hours to extinguish fires in residences here. Both blazes, neither of which was serious, were direct results of the low temperatures. Fire Chief Vincent L. Malloy said this morning. Several minor automobile accidents also occurred in this city and on nearby roads as machines skidded on the slippery roads.

Attempts to thaw out frozen water pipes are said to have started a fire which caused damage to the residence of Lloyd Whinnery, 1108 East Ninth street, at 8:03 a. m. today. Firemen extinguished the blaze without difficulty. A defective chimney is declared by Malloy to have caused a fire at the home of Ralph Reed, East Second street and North Broadway, at 5:45 p. m. Thursday.

Automobiles Collide
An automobile driven by John French, Salem High student and football player, collided with a machine driven by Fred Cook, R. F. D. No. 3, Leetons at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday. The machines came together at the Washington avenue-East

AMERICAN INTERESTS ABROAD

In this day of international thinking and talking, one hears a great deal of this nation's vast interests abroad—interests which must be safeguarded, protected and given an important place in all considerations affecting them.

The department of commerce's figures on these interests, released Tuesday, explain just how vast they are.

The department estimates that the value of direct American investments abroad at the end of 1929 was approximately seven and one-half billion dollars. As distinguished from "port-folio" investments, "direct" investments comprise those commercial and industrial properties situated abroad invested primarily for business purposes. Portfolio investments are made primarily for income return with no thought of business control. Both classes of investments represent approximately $16,000,000,000 of American capital, a sum which represents close to 4 per cent of the national wealth.

The direct investments, by geographical distribution, are: Canada—$1,960,320,000; South America—$1,547,895,000; Europe—$1,352,753,000; Cuba and West India—$1,053,751,000; Mexico and Central America—$917,093,000; Asia, Africa and Australia—$645,923,000. Total—$7,477,735,000.

It is of great significance that approximately three-fourths of America's direct investments abroad are in countries of the new world. In order of the percentages of the total invested the countries are: Canada, Cuba, Mexico, Great Britain, Chile, Argentina, Venezuela and Germany. The investments range from 26 per cent of the whole in Canada to three per cent in Germany.

No less interesting is the distribution of the investments. The largest single item is public utilities, in which $1,625,000,000 is invested. Branch factories are next, followed by mines and smelters, and petroleum properties.

There could be, perhaps, no more convincing exposition of the way in which thought follows the pocket-book than these estimates from the department of commerce. Four per cent of the national wealth of the United States doing work in other countries—yet there are people who believe, and sincerely, that Americans should keep free from entangling alliances. The alliances are already in existence; precautions are necessary to keep them from becoming entangled.

A SUCCESS STORY

The story of the late Charles H. Markham's rise in the railroad industry is part of the stock in trade of every public speaker. It has the stuff of real human interest in it. It is a typical American success story.

From platform sweeper to railroad president, the tale goes. A traveling auditor of the Southern Pacific railroad noticed a young man sweeping the station platform at Deming, N. M. He was doing it according to a system, making every stroke count, and paying no attention to the private car from which the auditor was observing him.

"There's a boy at Deming, sweeping platforms, who misses no dirt and wastes no strokes," the auditor told railroad officials. "Watch him."

The "watching" did not bring results immediately. Markham stayed on at Deming six years. Slowly, by many advancements and changes, he got to Fresno, Cal., as agent. There, he worked out a new plan of car loading which saved money for the railroad. He was on his way to becoming an efficiency expert. Then as the momentum increased, he took big jumps. He became president of the Illinois Central railroad and doubled its assets. He took the mystery out of railroads—became one of the outstanding figures in railroading. He died at Altadena, Cal., the other day at the age of 69.

Greater than the positions he held and the accomplishments he performed is the success story by which he will be remembered. Young Americans inclined to be skeptical about opportunities for advancement in this busy time will profit by it. The fellow who misses no dirt, wastes no effort and makes it his business to know his business, whatever it may be, still can accept handicaps in the race for success. Efficiency continues to demand a premium.

What Others Say

The Arrogance Of Dr. McBride

Dr. F. Scott McBride, the "Il Duce" of the Anti-Saloon league, lately rose to assert that if the Hoover enforcement commission dares to recommend a modification of the Volstead act, or any other change in the prohibition laws, it will "exceed its functions."

Although Dr. McBride apparently holds a contrary impression, it is a fact nevertheless that neither the President nor the congress of the United States has yet abdicated in his favor. He has not yet arrived at the dignity of being dictator over the land and sole custodian of its morals and ethics. For him to undertake to say how a federal commission may or may not report, is a great piece of arrogant impudence; and the performance is quite inexcusable, even though the doctor may feel that there is pressing need for his organization to provide an alibi that will seem to excuse it from accepting findings which he thinks are not going to be to its liking.

The supplementary statement by the doctor that regardless of what the Hoover commission may recommend, his organization will stand uncompromisingly against any modification of the dry regulations is another matter. The Anti-Saloon league will have the right to take any position regarding the commission report it may choose to make. But the announcement in advance that the organization will listen to neither presentation of fact nor to argument, if either, are repugnant to its preconceived notions, surely will not strengthen any impression now existing that the league is a reliable, unprejudiced, intellectually honest and safe guide.—Detroit Free Press.

WASHINGTON — The old saw about the bride's biscuits apparently holds true no longer: the newly-weds are buying them instead of making them. Judging from Commerce department figures which show biscuit and cracker makers last year did a business of $271,094,999. This was an increase of nearly 7 per cent over 1927. The last previous year in which a census of biscuit and cracker manufacturers was made.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Exercise Strengthens Heart

Civilization has brought with it many complications. Some of them seem almost more and more difficult by the impossible to bear. Living is made multiplicity of things that tax the human mind and heart. What can be done about it?

Statistics show that heart disease is on the increase. It is now the chief cause of death. There are many emergencies that make sudden demands on the heart. Great emotional strain has a distinct relationship to heart action. Without warning, a terrible strain is put upon the emotions and heart by news of sickness or death or disaster. Even everyday living has a good deal of a strain associated with it.

Dr. William J. Mayo, that eminent physician known from one end of the country to the other, recently spoke to the members of the American Medical Association. In his address he said that man has developed a brain at the expense of his body. Long eons ago man learned to control his emotions. Dr. Mayo appears to think this has thrown a tremendous strain on the heart, so that it may account for deterioration of the heart in civilized times.

He spoke, too, of the great strain a surgeon is under in his work. He must control his emotions in order to be successful in his work. There is no doubt but that there is much heart disease among doctors. And it is so in other walks of life.

The heart is a mass of muscles. It must beat seventy times or so, every minute. No matter how quiet you may be, the powerful heart muscles contract strongly every time there is a heartbeat. When you are hurried or excited, these contractions are quite violent.

For many persons, safety demands moderation and caution against those experiences which excite the heart. But for the most of us it is important to train the heart so that it is accustomed to hard but reasonable work. When you realize that the heart is largely muscles, you know that it must be treated like other muscles if it is to be strong. There must be systematic exercise, during which the heart muscles are made to work somewhat harder than they usually do. This strengthens the heart. It is the height of folly for people to go through life, too lazy, or too negligent, to get the amount of exercise needed daily for good health. Keep a reserve of strength, not only of the heart muscles, but of all the body muscles. This can be done by vigorous exercise, and exercise that is regular, not spasmodic.

When a person has a weak heart, that is a different matter. Such a person should be guided by the physician in all such matters as exercise, and the general care of the health. But for most of us regular and moderate exercise, freedom from worry and emotional strain, and right living in general, keep us fit for daily living.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.—The Rockefeller Restoration already has spent $7,000,000 in Williamsburg, colonial capital of Virginia, and the work is hardly begun, according to the report of Arthur Woods, president of the Williamsburg Holding Corporation. It has proposed $500,000 in the near future on restoration of historical old buildings here.

MIDDLETOWN, CONN.—A special set of 12 commemorative plates will be issued by Wedgewood in connection with Wesleyan's centennial celebration Oct. 10-12, 1931, according to an announcement by the college. The plates will reproduce on cream earthenware in the both old and new campus scenes.

Ohio Boy
Amazes Mother

"Marion's stomach was often upset and he suffered a lot with headaches," says Mrs. F. Messeldine, 7031 Zoeter Ave., Cleveland. "He was feverish and his breath was bad. I found he was constipated."

"A friend told me about California Fig Syrup, so I got some for Marion. It surely surprised me to see how quickly it stopped his feverishness, cleared his breath and tongue, regulated his bowels; made him a strong and energetic boy again."

The quick, safe way to cleanse and regulate the bowels of bilious, headachy, constipated children is with California Fig Syrup. Give it at the first sign of bad breath, coated tongue, listlessness or feverishness. Every child loves its rich, fruity flavor and it acts without griping or discomfort. Appetite is increased by its use; digestion is assisted; weak stomach and bowels are given tone and strength.

For fifty years, doctors have endorsed this pure vegetable product. The genuine is always marked by the word California. Look for that when buying or you may get an imitation.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Souffle for Dessert
"As light as a souffle" is a graphic comparison to the skillful cook who can prepare one. For a perfect souffle is lightness and flavor—it seems to have no substance. And it is the ideal hot dessert to finish off a complete dinner, a mere "puff" of sweets, as its French origin indicates.

Whipped eggs are the foundation of any souffle, and once the basic rules are mastered, any number of varieties can be made in the same way. First, yolks and whites must be beaten separately, secondly, the oven must be of moderate temperature. (Like all egg mixtures, cooking must be moderate. If the oven is too hot, the mixture may scorch before it is cooked through; and if it is not sufficiently warm it will not rise.) And, most important—a souffle must be served immediately from oven door to table. It awaits for no man, and collapses a minute after it is removed from the oven, anyway. A souffle should be served at least the moment after it is finished, puffy, rounded, golden brown.

Orange Souffle
4 eggs
1 orange
1 lemon
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla

Separate the eggs and beat the yolks thick, gradually beating in the sugar, strained orange and lemon juice, and grate drind of both lemon and orange. Finally fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites and vanilla.

Pour in a buttered baking dish, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven for 35 minutes.

Apples, grated, mashed figs, prunes, apricots or other fruits may be used instead of orange.

steal turkeys, and were unsuccessful, as they had been trying to get jobs. Policemen killed Fred Bernard, as he fled from a butcher shop, with the turkey that never reached his four children. Joseph Martin was killed by the owner of a butcher shop, and his two children will have a funeral, and no turkey. Property, turkeys included, must be protected. How marvelous it would be, if we could attend to criminals in the million dollar class, as well as we attend to turkey thieves.

Germany lost the war but is not losing time in this peace.

Using foreign capital, partly American, and 27,000 workmen, Germans will build 500,000 tons of new commercial ships. Modern war kills men, but no longer kills women, that create the men. It does not kill old men, and scientists are usually beyond the military age.

Germany has her scientists, to create a new industrial Germany, her women, to create the new German generation, and is better off on the whole, than some of those that "won the war."

The government at Washington seems not very proud of its World Court proposition and propaganda. You read that arrangements will be made to defer any action on the protocol. It will be mentioned to the senate, with the request "don't do anything about it just now, let it go over. It might cause unpleasant discussion." The administration evidently knows, in a vague sort of way, that the people do not agree with international bankers, and do not want this country tied up in any international net work.

Prohibition enforcement and northern federal judges say that home brewing of beer, and making wine from grape juice are legal. The federal judge at Tampa, Fla., says manufacturing or possessing any alcoholic beverage in a home is illegal.

Government agencies, judges, enforcement officers and others should agree on what the law is, if possible. To have a different set of laws for different states would make confusion worse.

Three Hurt In Crash

TOLEDO, Nov. 28.—A car plunging over a bridge steel abutment onto another car, set both afire and endangered the lives of three men who were saved by passersby just before flames enveloped the machines. R. A. Weitzel, Evansville, Ind., suffered a broken leg, fractured jaw and ribs and bruises. Walter King, 37, escaped with minor cuts and A. J. Moody, 53, sustained severe head and spinal injuries.

TULARE, CAL.—Mrs. H. J. Lumley, wife of a rancher near here, has a Rhode Island Red cockerel with two wishbones and no breast. The bird's heart is so close to the skin that its beats can be watched.

HUNTINGTON, TENN.—Monthly sing festivals are held in the court house here. People from miles around participate, those who cannot sing whistle and hum. It is a growing diversion.

Net Champ and Runner-Up

Close competition in tennis at Barnard College has resulted in Miss Edith Tomkins (right) being crowned champion and Miss Olga Kallos (left), of Norway, runner-up.

Bits of News

CHICAGO—Four youthful burglars stole three pounds of grapes and ate them on the way to their river shack. Police followed the "grape skin trail" to the shack where they arrested one of the youths.

CHICAGO—Highway grade crossing fatalities decreased 14 per cent during the first six months of 1930, the National Safety Council announced. The total for the six months, as tabulated by the Interstate Commerce Commission, was 902 deaths. This was the lowest figure since 1925.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—The police department has changed its radio broadcasting apparatus because officials suspected that "ambulance chasing lawyers" were listening in and beating the radio patrol cars to accidents.

MAARKED TREE, ARK.—American Legion members here have adopted a deaf and dumb boy, sending him to a school for the deaf equipped with new clothes and spending money and an allowance.

MAYVILLE, WIS.—The spinning wheel business is on the decline, according to the records of Frank Fell who has been manufacturing them here for the last 25 years. Contrary to general belief, two-thirds of his output at present is for utility purposes.

Shows Joy as Ticket Brings Him $10,000

By way of waving his hat and shouting for joy, little Frederick Collins, of Dorchester, Mass., celebrates the news that he won $10,000 in the Manxmaster (England) Handicap. Fred's mother bought ticket in his name of Nestorian, which finished third.

(By Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28. — A $1,000,000 fund left as a "foundation for the education of females in or adjacent to Philadelphia" by William Curran, who died 50 years ago, has been awarded to Beaver college in Jenkintown near here.

Others Seek Fund

Two other institutions had filed applications for the fund, Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., and the Philadelphia school for Christian workers.

The award to Beaver college was disclosed in a report to the orphan's court, made public today.

The money represents the accumulation of principal and income on $50,000 which Dr. Curran left in trust when he died in 1880. The will stipulated that the fund should be used to establish a foundation for a college such as the testament described, when the annual income should amount to $35,000.

Conditions Stipulated

Under the terms of the foundation, Beaver college must give $5,000 to Lafayette college, and 6 per cent interest on this gift from Feb. 2, 1928, to the date of the award. Mr. Biddle recommended that the award be made conditional to Beaver college among its charter and by-laws to eliminate its present status as a stock corporation.

Victim in N. Y. Triple Killing

Mrs. Dorothy Foster, estranged wife of a New York policeman, was shot dead by Frank Masone, of Yonkers, N. Y., when the latter went on a rampage enraged by the thought that she had been untrue to him. Masone also killed Dorothy's foster sister, Marie O'Connor, and ended the orgy of blood by killing himself.

On Approval

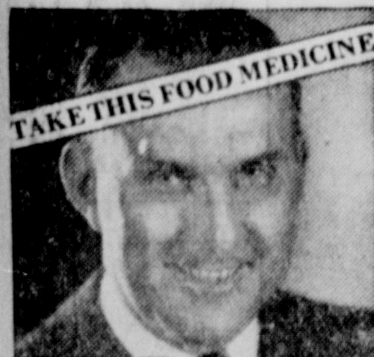

The class was standing by their desks and the teacher was walking up and down inspecting the children's books.

On approaching one of the boys, she noticed a price ticket attached to his trousers.

"Tommy," she cried in a tone of amazement, "do you know you have a price ticket on your trousers?"

The boy, however, showed no surprise at being told this; instead he calmly replied:

"Yes, teacher; they might have to go back tomorrow."—London Answers.

Don't Cough and Sneeze

If you catch cold easily and are coughing and sneezing for weeks on end, it is a sure sign that you are in a weakened, run-down condition. Doping your cold with merely leads to a false sense of security. Take Father John's Food Medicine. Instead, then you are not only helping to break your cold right up, but you are building up the system to throw off the poisons that are keeping you sick. This simple food medicine contains vitamins that promote health and strength and increase resistance to disease. Take it regularly and colds will be few and far between. Thousands have proved this for over seventy-five years. Just ask your druggist.

METER BATTLE VERDICT GIVEN

Judge Lones declared this contention is supported by the opinion of two supreme court judges who are now serving in that capacity.

Emergency Declared

The court in its opinion declares that an emergency concerning the water supply for the city exists cannot be successfully questioned. When the storage basin was built it was believed to be of sufficient capacity to store a volume of water ample for periods when, by reason of deficient rainfall, the creeks, rivulets and springs would not furnish the required amount of water. By reason of these facts it is necessary to obtain the water supply from the Ohio river. We are informed by experts that the river water is impure and contaminated with disease germs. The city does not have a filtration plant or any method of purifying the water. In its present raw state it is liable to cause much sickness, although fortunately it has not caused any serious amount of sickness as yet. But any and all persons who use the water know it is unfit for use for domestic purposes. While the water from the gravity system is not perfect and should be filtered, yet in its raw state it is more pure and more desirable than the water from the river.

Inefficient Capacity

"The emergency exists in the insufficient capacity of the storage basin, with its present equipment or lack of equipment to store sufficient water to supply the city during a drought. This emergency is real, and is an emergency under the most approved definitions of that word. This situation was unexpected and unforeseen; it is a perplexing contingency; an unexpected and pressing necessity for action."

"However, in order that an ordinance may be exempt from the referendum it must be an ordinance necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and the reasons for such necessity must be set forth in one section of the ordinance. The reason for such necessity is stated in the ordinance to be to prevent a recurring shortage of drinking water in the city. Council is given power to pass emergency ordinance, and the court is not permitted by law to substitute its judgment for that of the council."

Body Of Nashville Man Is Found In Room At Hotel

(By Associated Press)

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 28.—With a shoe lace drawn around his neck, the body of R. E. Donnell, president of the closed Liberty Bank & Trust Co., an institution which he organized, was found in a hotel room here early today.

Repeated telephone calls to the room went unanswered and when the door was opened, M. D. Johnson, assistant cashier of the bank, found the body.

An envelope on which was written "to Ridley E. Donnell, Jr., from daddy," and containing his watch and chain, was found in his vest pocket. The lace from his left shoe had been removed and tied around his neck over a handkerchief.

Police said Mr. Donnell had committed suicide and that no inquest was necessary.

A statement of the bank, Donnell said, at the time of the closing Nov. 13, showed resources of approximately $1,000,000. He expressed the opinion that with economical administration of the institution's affairs the depositors would be paid in full.

MOVIES

"LAWFUL LARCENY"

At The State
An all-star cast appears in Radio Pictures' "Lawful Larceny" at the State theatre, including four-year-old Dickie Moore, who plays the part of Bebe Daniels' son.

Miss Daniels, the star, scores in an entirely new role, that of a wife who sets out to recover her husband from another woman. Her performance is intensely human and convincing.

She is supported by a cast of former stage favorites, including Olive Tell, Lowell Sherman, Purnell Pratt and Kenneth Thomson. There is not a dull moment in the picture which tells an entertaining story of a cycle of victims. The husband is victimized by a siren, the siren is victimized by a clever, lovable but unscrupulous man, admirably portrayed by Lowell Sherman.

How he and the siren are finally out-manuevered by Miss Daniels, as the wife, makes a climax as unusual as it is worth seeing. A splendid thread of ironic humor runs throughout the performance, both in situations and in dialogue.

"SCOTLAND YARD"

At The Grand
Make-up, as an art in characterization, is brought to its highest perfection by Edmund Lowe in the dual role he portrays in "Scotland Yard," which is showing at the Grand Theatre.

As Sir John Lasher, in the picture Lowe portrays his usual polished gentleman of the world. But as "Dakin Barrolles," England's feared bank robber, he must assume the facial disguise of the underworld.

The intensely human story involves the struggle of an underworld character to resume his place in decent society. Through the mistake of a plastic surgeon who rebuilds his face after it had been mangled in battle, Barrolles, the criminal, is made to appear exactly like Sir John Lasher, English gentleman.

At first it seems that he is to be accepted by society in his new character without having to pay the penalty for his former crimes. But his own sense of honor prevents him from keeping up the pose when he finds that the wife of the man whom he is representing to be loves him and he in turn loves her.

Jean Bennett, as Kandra, the wife of Sir John Lasher, heads the distinguished cast seen in support. These include Barbara Leonard, Donald Crisp, Lumden Hare, David Torrence.

"CAZAR OF BROADWAY"

At the Royal
Czar of Broadway, a thrilling drama of the underworld opened at the Royal theatre last night.

"The Czar of Broadway" presents in a stark realistic manner the political problems of our city, living in the larger city, sincere love story adds to the color of the production.

The clever maneuvers of the underworld characters in their attempts to run the governments of our cities, is a revelation which will cause many to gasp. The thrilling situations which confront a young newspaper man who attempts to get "the low-down" on the underworld add greatly to the entertainment. John Wray, recognized as one of the greatest crook characters of the New York stage, plays the leading role. Betty Compson plays the girl, while Johnny Harcho is the ambitious young reporter. The supporting cast includes the names of King Baggot, Wilbur Mack, and George Byron.

Salem-Alliance Battle To Scoreless Tie In Turkey Day Tilt

THE DAY In Sports MASSILLON WINS TITLE COUNTY RIVALS CLASH EAST LIVERPOOL LOSES

Massillon High, victor in three straight league contests, will be declared winner of the Northeastern Ohio Big Ten Interscholastic championship as a result of the scoreless tie game played between Salem and Alliance have one tie.

The award of the title to Massillon will not be greeted with a great amount of favor in this section of the state, in fact it will not be regarded as an event which will prove favorable to the newly formed district organization. It will probably increase interest in the circuit in the Massillon district but here and in Alliance it will only serve to point out that titular awards will not be possible until competition in the league is increased.

Massillon deserves winning the title for, on a comparison of scores, it has a team that should rate high. Its season's record, from the standpoint of victories and defeats, does not compare with that of Salem or Alliance, but then the records show three wins and no defeats in Big Ten competition. Also, Massillon played stronger teams than Alliance and holds a victory over Warren by as decisive a margin as that registered by the Stonemen over the same team.

It is unfortunate that Old Man Weather put in such a disappointing appearance in yesterday's contest at Alliance. Salem has a team which cannot go on a wet or snowy gridiron. The elements were entirely against the Red and Black and in favor of Alliance's heavy aggregation. Breaks were evenly divided as far as actual play in the contest were concerned, but the snow-covered gridiron was very much against Salem.

If Coach Stone so desires he can lay claim to another title, however, that being the Columbiana county grid crown. Wellsville's 6-0 victory over East Liverpool yesterday cleared the path for such a claim as the Stonemen hold a 13-7 verdict against Wellsville.

DOPE UPSET IN BUCKEYE GAMES

Cincy, Dayton, Reserve In Surprise Roles On Ohio Gridirons

(By Associated Press) COLUMBUS, Nov. 28.—Ohio's 1936 football season was never more surprising than in the final games, which saw Western Reserve whip Case, Cincinnati defeat Miami and Dayton rally against Wittenberg.

The only true upset was Cincinnati's 6 to 0 victory over Miami, giving the Bearcats third place in the Buckeye conference, but the other two games, while expected to be extremely close, had a shady complexion, as compared with advance notices on them.

The three remaining games went true to form. Akron assured its ranking as the best team in the Northeast by defeating Mount Union, 29 to 0; the Haskell Indians felled Xavier 33 to 7, and Wilberforce won from West Virginia Institute, 13 to 0.

Cold Weather Handicap To Players In Gruelling Game At Mount Union

Old Man Weather reigned supreme as master of ceremonies sent mercury of thermometers throughout Ohio down to a near-zero mark and marred what was destined as one of the outstanding scholastic grid classics in the state at Mount Union stadium, Alliance, Thanksgiving day afternoon. Battling on a snow-covered gridiron with a fierce wind blowing into their faces, Salem and Alliance grid teams, fighting for a share of the Northeastern Ohio football title, battled to a scoreless tie.

Good football was an impossibility in the gruelling struggle, fumbles appearing with prominence to mar the contest as the players, fingers numbed and arms stiffened by the cold, were almost helpless in the face of the elements. Less spectacular plays were seen by the thriving throng of more than 5,000 spectators than in any Salem-Alliance contest in years.

Three opportunities to score by Salem went for naught because of fumbles while Alliance, with the ball deep down into the Stonemen's territory, were held without a score twice by the stout Quaker line which was outweighed more than ten pounds to a man. Both teams tried several forward passes, Alliance completing only aerials of any account while Salem only once gained much on line plays.

Alliance probably held the edge in whatever football was played in the gruelling struggle but the scoreless tie was only proper in justice to both teams. The elements handicapped both aggregations but Salem suffered the greatest harm. Its star backfield man, Ed Beck, cynosure of all eyes because of his being rated as the greatest ball-carrier in Northeastern Ohio, got away for only one run, that of 20 yards, while neither team was able to gain on straight football. Beck's one run would have resulted in a touchdown, the star getting away for a clear field but slipped and fell on the snow to allow tacklers to nab him from the rear.

Breaks Divided Evenly

Breaks were fairly evenly divided in the contest but neither team was able to take advantage of those that occurred. Play was in Alliance's territory most of the game but the Red and Black never advanced closer than the 19-yd. line. In first downs Alliance had a nine-to-three edge, getting most of them on forward passes.

Salem tried eight passes without completing one while Coach Wilcoxen's proteges completed five for a total gain of 63 yards. Alliance's only gains on ground plays came in the third quarter on a series of end-around plays with Gainer and Maxwell carrying the oval.

Alliance received to start the game and on the first play from scrimmage tried a double pass, Windland receiving the ball from Abaffy on the second throw to dash 55 yards over Salem's goal-line. The pass was illegal, and the ball was returned to where Windland received it. No penalty was handed out by the officials because of the violation. Mike Corso recovered an Alliance fumble and play continued back and forth without either team accomplishing anything. Alliance made two first downs to one by Salem in the quarter. A thrilling 20-yd. run by Beck gave the Stonemen their only first down.

Smith Grabs Pass

Starting the second period Windland gained seven yards on a buck but Smith intercepted a pass on his own 35. Beck gained two yards and Smith fumbled on the next play. Alliance recovering on Salem's 30, Windland failed to gain and Salem was given the ball on downs after three passes were incomplete. Beck punted from his own 30, the ball going over Trot's head and rolled to the Alliance three-yd. line. Gainer punted back but Beck again got the better of the exchange with a 52-yd. boot.

Abaffy failed to gain and Gainer punted on the next down. Bill Smith received the kick on his own 40 and ran 29 yards for one of the game's most thrilling dashes. Each team fumbled twice before the half ended with play in midfield.

Alliance Threatens Score

Alliance kicked to Salem in the third period and recovered when the receiver fumbled. End runs brought the ball down to the Red and Black nine-yd. stripe but there Salem's forwards braced, threw Windland and Abaffy for losses on two straight plays and took the ball on downs. Salem kicked out of danger and Alliance punted back. The ball bounded and struck Smith's leg, an Alliance end punting on it on the Salem 33. French threw Windland for a three-yd loss and Abaffy lost two when Mackett broke through the line. Maxwell lost seven more on an attempted end run, Smith smearing him, as the quarter closed.

On a bad punt Salem got the ball in midfield but was unable to gain. Alliance attempted to boot back but the ball was good for less than 20 yards and it was Salem's ball on the opponents' 30. French hit the line for gains of two and three yards but two passes were incomplete. Alliance got the ball on downs and Maxwell got away for an 11-yd. run. Gainer's punt was blocked by Hackett who recovered for Salem. Beck kicked again and on the first play from scrimmage Alliance fumbled, Salem recovering.

Placekick Fails

Line plays failed to net much and Smith dropped back for a placekick. Beck holding the ball. The oval started directly for the goal posts but a strong wind took it and blew it wide.

Alliance punted out of danger, Carpenter returning the kick to midfield. Beck fumbled 15 yards back of the scrimmage line and Alliance recovered on the Stonemen's 35. With two minutes of play remaining the Aviators started another barrage of aerials, two succeeding, bringing them within three yards of a touchdown.

Windland was held for no gain and on another attempted plunge lost a foot. Two passes failed and Salem was given the ball on downs, bringing to a halt the only real scoring threat of the contest.

Prospects Bright For Winning Cage Teams At Damascus

DAMASCUS, Nov. 20.—With prospects for a winning team extremely bright, cage team of Goshen Township high school, will inaugurate their 1936-37 season when they invade Belmont for a double bill Wednesday evening.

Last season was a disastrous season for the Quakers, the boys winning but one clash out of a 14-game schedule. The girls won four games of their regular schedule, made a very creditable showing, by reaching the semi-finals in the Mahoning tourney.

Both squads have been working out daily since November 3. Coaches of both squads, report their teams in fine shape and are hopeful in getting off on the right foot with a double win over Belmont.

W. D. Larkin Coach

W. D. Larkin of Greenfield, is in charge of the boys for his third successive season. He is a Wilmington college man, and formerly coached at Hillsboro, Highland and Bellbrook.

Coach Larkin has four lettermen back this year, including Crawford and Coy, forwards, Yates, a guard, and Gailbraith, a forward. Of the new men, Steffer, Weingert, R. Knoedler and Beckert, are the best looking prospects.

The sextet is in charge of Adrienne Spahn of Lakewood. She is formerly of Wooster college and this is her third year at the helm of the lassies.

Prospects of a winning girls' team are bright, as Coach Spahn, has eight players back who earned letters last year. Out of this number, five of the girls were regulars, including Margaret De Wan, flashy forward. Miss De Wan was selected as an all-county forward last season.

Several Veterans Back

Other regulars include Alice Williams, and Helen Crist, guards. Esther Pettit, center, and Wanda Campbell, forward. Miss Williams was selected as a guard on the all-county second team. Lois Coy, Olga Miller and Doris Howard won letters last season. Doris Clemons and Lillian Williams, are the most likely looking prospects of the new players.

The boys will participate in 14 games, including seven games on the home court and an equal number abroad. The girls are scheduled to appear in one less fray, since Sebring is not represented by a girl's team this season. New Waterford and North Lima are the new teams appearing on the schedule.

Heidelberg Players Head List Of Gridders On All-Buckeye

By LATHROP MACK COLUMBUS, Nov. 28.—Showing the way as it did during the regular football season, Heidelberg college leads the rest of the Ohio conference in representation on the conference honorary eleven selected by the Associated Press in cooperation with coaches, officials and newspapermen throughout the state.

Five players were outstanding in the 19-team league. Three of them were Heidelberg men and these three were most outstanding of the five. All were unanimous choices at their positions. They were Captain Merle Hutson of Bradner, O.; tackle, Otto Vokaty of Cleveland, (fullback) and Dwight Haley of Tiffin, quarterback.

Won Previous Honors

Hutson was all-Ohio tackle in 1928 as a sophomore again last year as a junior. Vokaty was all-Ohio fullback in 1928 but was slowed up by injuries in 1929. Haley has been one of the outstanding ball-carriers of the state for three years, rating the second all-conference team each season until now.

Two Muskingum stars, two from Akron and one each from Mount Union, Capital, Wooster and Ashland complete the team which follows:

Ends—Ray Miller, Wooster and Raber, Mount Union.
Tackles—Merle Hutson, Heidelberg, and Gene Mechling, Capital.
Guards—Bernard Armstrong, Muskingum, and Wiltner, Akron.
Center—Donald Baker, Ashland.
Quarterback—Dwight Haley, Heidelberg.
Halfbacks—"Red" Cochrane, Akron, and Douglas Russell, Muskingum.
Fullback—Otto Vokaty, Heidelberg.

Stomach Troubles

That Are Dangerous (CUT THIS OUT)

Some forms of stomach trouble, if neglected, often lead to dangerous condition—ulcers or cancers—then, a surgical operation is about the only hope.

For this reason, even the most simple stomach ailments should be given prompt and careful attention. So, don't neglect acid stomach, sourness, gas or bloating! And don't waste time with unknown or unreliable treatments. At the very first signs of distress, go to any good drug store and get some pure Bismarck Magnesia (powder or tablets). This special Magnesia Compound is safe and pleasant to take—quickly, almost instantly, effective and does not act as a laxative. Be sure and ask for BIS-MARCKED Magnesia for stomach troubles only. Kills Family and Self Apparently distracted with the fear of poverty for his family and himself, R. W. Playford (above), 65-year-old attorney and banker, of Uniontown, Pa., shot and killed his three young daughters and himself and probably fatally wounded his wife, a niece of Admiral Yates Stirling of the U. S. Army.

SAN FRANCISCO—Being befriended got John Willett in trouble. Willett was "broke" in Sacramento and asked a stranger for money. He was given a dollar and arrested because the coin was counterfeit. The stranger later identified as William Hartley, was sent to prison for 18 months. Willett was granted probation.

SAN FRANCISCO—M. W. Walsh, 33, a confessed arsonist, solved his difficulties, nicely by agreeing to leave this country forever if prosecution of charges against him were dropped. Authorities agreed whereupon Walsh bought a ticket for China.

RESINOL "HEALED EVERY PIMPLE"

Writes Miss Klug
"For some years I have had a rough and pimply skin. I tried many kinds of skin lotions and creams, but none of them seemed to do any good. One day I saw your advertisement for Resinol Ointment and sent for a sample. The results were so good, I bought a full size jar. It cleared away the redness and roughness, and healed every pimple. Now I always keep a jar on hand, and am glad to pass along a good word for Resinol."

(Signed)—Miss Julia Klug, Loyal, Wis.

OWA-TON-NA ENDS YEARS OF NEURITIS SUFFERING

Folks Past 50 Tell Amazing Stories of Owa-Ton-Na's Benefits to Health

J. J. MEREDITH

"My whole system seemed to be in a sluggish condition which I suppose allowed an awful accumulation of poisons to exist in my system," says Mr. J. J. Meredith, 342 Arling-ton Ave., N. W. Canton, Ohio. "This brought about intense suffering from neuritis which lasted for days at a time. Then I started to take Owa-Ton-Na and from then on things looked entirely different."

"This medicine seemed to get right at the source of my trouble and it certainly made me feel like a different person. The pressing in my stomach soon passed and the gas stopped forming after meals. I found myself eating better and I did not get exhausted after the least thing I did. Headaches left me and my kidneys started to function normally. Gradually neuritis pains became less severe and finally left me altogether."

Owa-Ton-Na is a herbal preparation of Mother Nature's own roots, herbs, barks and berries. Its success is due to its action on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels—the organs that purify the system and prevent such conditions as neuritis and rheumatic pains, biliousness, sour stomach, constipation and headaches. Prove its value in your own case, test it for one week, see how effective it is in the elimination of harmful poisons from the system—how it rubes the body with a new feeling of fitness and eliminates that tired, worn out feeling.

Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at the J. H. Lease Co. Drug Store and Broadway Lease Store.—Adv.
